the election. Same person can be appointed election agent by more than one candidate. An election agent should be an eligible voter as per finally published list of voters.

- 2) The appointment of election agent may be revoked by the candidate at any time by a declaration in writing in prescribed form signed by him and lodged with the authorized person of the EC. Such revocation shall take effect from the date on which it is lodged. In the event of such revocation or in the event of election agent dying before, or during the period of the election, the candidate may appoint a new election agent.

V. Scrutiny of Nominations

- 1) On the date and hour fixed for scrutiny of the nominations, the candidates or their election agents and one proposer of each candidate may remain present at the scrutiny. No other person should be permitted to attend. The authorized person of the Election Committee shall give to the persons present, all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all the candidates which have been delivered within time.
- 2) The authorized person of the Election Committee shall then examine all the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made in respect of nominations and may either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary enquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination paper on any of the following grounds:
 - (a) that the candidate or the proposer or the seconder is not an eligible voter;
 - (b) that the nomination paper has not delivered either by the candidate or by his proposer;
 - (c) that the nomination paper has not been delivered to the authorized person of the Election Committee during the time and at the place specified in the order of Notice of Election.
 - (d) that the nomination paper has not been duly completed and signed by the candidate or by the proposer or by the seconder;
 - (e) that the proposer or the seconder has subscribed as proposer or seconder in excess of the number of available positions in the Council as prescribed by the Election Committee;
 - (f) that the signature of the candidate or of the proposer or of the seconder is not genuine.
- 3) The authorized person of the Election Committee shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting it and should invariably record the reason while rejecting a nomination.
- 4) Immediately after all the nomination papers have been scrutinized and decisions accepting or rejecting them have been recorded, a list of validly nominated candidates in prescribed form is to be prepared and displayed in the office notice board.

VI. Withdrawal of Nomination

- 1) Any candidate may withdraw his/her candidature by a notice in writing in the prescribed form which shall be subscribed by him and delivered before 15.00 hrs. of the day fixed for it in 'Notice of Election' to the authorized person of the election Committee by himself/herself or through his/her election agent who has been authorized on his/her behalf in writing by such candidate.
- 2) Notice of withdrawal of candidate can be given only after the scrutiny of nomination is over. The notice may be accepted on the date of scrutiny after the scrutiny is over. No notice of withdrawal should, however, be accepted after 15.00 hrs. of the day fixed for it in the 'Notice of Election'.
- 3) The authorized person of the election Committee shall note thereon the date and time of which it was delivered and shall on being satisfied as to the genuineness of notice of withdrawal and the identity of the person delivering it, accept it and cause a notice in prescribed form to be affixed in the office notice board.
- 4) No person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his/her candidature shall be allowed to withdraw his/her notice.

VII. Preparation and publication of the list of contesting candidates.

- 1) Such list in prescribed form and in prescribed language, i.e. English, following alphabetical order shall be made by the authorized person of the Election Committee after considering and disposing off the cases of withdrawal of candidatures. The candidate or his/her election agent should furnish in writing to the authorized person form and spelling of the name of the contesting candidate in the language of publication, i.e. English.
- 2) The said list shall contain the names in alphabetical order, the address of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers, membership number of the candidates as given in the voters list for each of the available positions (seats).
- 3) The list will be displayed in the office Notice Board and a copy shall also be given to the contesting candidate or to his/her election agent.

VIII. Contested and Uncontested Elections

- 1) If at any available positions
 - (a) the number of contesting candidates is more than the number of seats to be filled, a poll shall be taken,
 - (b) the number of such candidates is equal to the number of seats to be filled, the authorized person of the Election Committee shall forthwith declare in prescribed form all such candidates to be duly elected to fill those seats,

(c) the number of such candidates is less than the number of seats to be filled, the authorized person of the Election Committee shall forthwith declare in prescribed form all such candidates to be elected.

- 2) Certificate of election shall be granted in prescribed form to each of the elected candidates.

IX. Printing & Distribution of Ballot Papers

- 1) The ballot papers necessary for the purpose of election to the office-bearers and other members of the Council will have to be printed under the sole discretion and authority of the EC. Printed ballot papers will be kept under the custody of the EC.
- 2) Ballot papers will be printed in form approved by the EC. EC will determine the number of ballot papers to be printed and how the account will be kept.
- 3) Authorized person of the EC will check all the printed ballot papers for defects in serial numbering (100 onwards), print and design. Defective ballot papers will not be issued. Numbering will be made on the left hand top corner of the foil and counterfoil of the ballot paper. If design permits, ballot papers will be stitched bunched in 50s bearing consecutive serial numbers.
- 4) All defective ballot papers will be separated, noted in a Register and communicated to contesting candidates. All such ballot papers will be put in a secured envelop along with counterfoils and certificate of the authorized person of EC who checked the ballot papers.
- 5) Ballot papers will be issued to the voters inside the polling booth by a polling officer on the polling day during the polling hour only after receiving the signature of the voter on the counterfoil of a ballot paper. The foil of the ballot paper will have on its back distinguishing mark of the EC.
- 6) Marking on the Ballot Paper will be done by voters with ballpoint pen to be provided by the Polling Official inside the booth.

X. Countermanding of poll

If a candidate whose nomination has been found valid on scrutiny and who has not withdrawn his candidature dies before finalization of the list of candidates or if a contesting candidate dies and a report of his death is received before the commencement of the poll, the authorized person of the EC, upon being satisfied of the fact of death of the candidate, countermand the poll of that particular position and report the fact to the EC and to the General Secretary of the Society. All proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as it is a new election.
